Online application for exchange students

Further information and access to the online application at University of Iceland will be sent to students who have been nominated by their home university.

Application checklist

Application checklist:
- Online application including a course selection. Course selection must consist of 30 ECTS credits per semester, where at least 60% of courses are within the students’ major
- One passport size photograph attached to the online application
- Transcript of records in English or a Nordic language (DK, NO, SE, IS) attached to the online application. Certified transcripts attached to the online application require original signatures and stamp marks.

Late or incomplete applications will not be processed.

Application status

Students must keep track of their application status online: https://english.hi.is/university/international_exchange_students#status

Academic year

The academic year is divided into two semesters, autumn and spring, each semester lasting thirteen weeks. The academic calendar varies somewhat from one faculty to another: http://english.hi.is/university/academic_calendar

Expected date of arrival

It is recommended that students arrive in time to attend the orientation days or at the latest a few days prior to the beginning of the semester. The beginning of the semesters vary between faculties but exact dates are in the Academic calendar.

Orientation

It is important that students watch the pre-orientation videos offered by the international office and services at the university: http://english.hi.is/university/pre_orientation_for_international_students

Orientation days for all international students are held at the beginning of each semester where the practicalities and services at the University are introduced. Various events are available to students during the first days of the semester, among others a welcome reception, guided tour on campus, concerts, lectures etc: http://english.hi.is/university/orientation_and_academic_calendar

Courses offered for exchange students

Course selection must consist of 30 ECTS credits per semester, where at least 60% of courses are within the students’ major

Courses closed for exchange students

- The faculties of Medicine, Nursing and Pharmaceutical Sciences are restricted to prior agreements between the exchanging faculties
- The faculties of Law and Economics do not accept undergraduate students
- MBA is closed
- Courses starting with PTS in the faculty of business are restricted to prior agreements between the exchanging faculties
- Courses in the English Language Programme are only available to exchange students majoring in English at their home university or students who are very proficient in English (except the course “English for Practical Purposes”)
- Courses taught in Icelandic are generally not open to exchange students, (except Nordic students and students who are fluent in Icelandic and can speak, write and understand Icelandic)

Course catalogue

Credits and grading system

60 ECTS credits amounts to full time studies for one academic year and 30 ECTS credits are considered full time studies per semester. <tr>
<td>Language proficiency</td>
<td>Applicants from countries outside the EU/EEA whose native language is not English, need to prove their English proficiency by submitting TOEFL (min. 79) or IELTS (min. 6.5) scores. This is to make sure students do not have problems during their exchange period as they cannot expect any special assistance due to language problems. A self-assessment of English proficiency is included in the student application.</td>
